

In order to address the issue, mention above, a mobile application call Fake news fact check have created. It is a mobile application define the news is trustable or not. In the application news will state into three groups, True, Fake and undefined. Each group is defined by the system and show with the evidence. News will also have divided into different era by their content: entertainment, sport, politics and technology. Therefore, User can search the news by the search engine and by their content

The purpose of the application is to let user to identify the authenticity of information and news they received from newspaper, internet and social media. Through that this can educate user to independent think when then receive any information and this can decrease the spread of fake news.

View Details

DESIGN INTERACTION

WORKFLOW

PROTOTYPE

User Testing

In future development, we want to develop a real time fact check system that can be used in cross-platform messaging app, URL links and social media website. This can be increase the convenient for user's daily life.

BACKGROUND RESEARCH

An 11-year-old girl's report that a man tried to cut off her hijab as she walked to school. This event has turned to a big problem when it comes to racial and religious attack. This has affected thought the racial relationship between the racial in Canada and harm the trust between others. Even the prime minister of Canada has come out to blame the murderer who did that. However, after the police department investigate the case it came out that this event never happened but the news has already spread in the mainstream media and did harm the country.

ALLEGED HUAB ATTACK ON 11-YEAR-OLD TORONTO GIRL

An 11-year-old girl's report that a man tried to cut off her hijab as she walked to school. This event has turned to a big problem when it comes to racial and religious attack. This has affected thought the racial relationship between the racial in Canada and harm the trust between others. Even the prime minister of Canada has come out to blame the murderer who did that. However, after the police department investigate the case it came out that this event never happened but the news has already spread in the mainstream media and did harm the country.